MAJOR LEAGUE MANAGERS

Terry Francona and Brad Mills

College and professional teammates now leading own clubs at baseball's highest level

Terry Francona and Brad Mills played two seasons together at Arizona in the 1978 and 1979 seasons. Mills was drafted in the 17th Round of the 1979 Major League Baseball amateur draft by the Montreal Expos, while Francona helped lead the Wildcats to a national title the following seasons. After the 1980 season, Francona, too, was drafted by the Expos, which reunited the former Wildcats who were roommates at Arizona. The duo played together in Montreal for three seasons (1981-83).

In recent years, Francona was hired by the Boston Red Sox as the organization's manager, and he hired Mills to join the staff as the bench coach. Together, Francona and Mills helped lead Boston to two World Series Championships. Mills served under Francona for six seasons before being hired to manage the Houston Astros after the 2009 season.

Francona at Arizona (1978-80)

Francona attended the University of Arizona from 1978-80, starring under coach Jerry Kindall. As a junior in 1980, Francona helped lead the Wildcats to the 1980 NCAA Championship, earning Most Outstanding Player honors. That same year, Francona won the Golden Spikes Award, presented annually by USA Baseball to the nation's top amateur player. He hit .401 en route to also being named College Player of the Year by The Sporting News, and batted .458 at the College World Series.

In 1980, Francona was drafted in the first round of the Major League Draft, being selected No. 22 overall by the Montreal Expos. He played five seasons in Montreal, before moving to the Chicago Cubs in 1986. He finished his playing career with stints in Cincinnati, Cleveland and Milwaukee. In all, Francona played in 707 games in the Major Leagues and hit .274 for his career.

Francona's career remains one of the most accomplished in Arizona baseball history. Several of his hitting marks still rank among UA's top-10 in the respective categories. Here's a quick look:

Mills at Arizona (1978-79)

Mills attended the University of Arizona from 1978-79, turning in an impressive career that remains one of the best in UA's storied history. The ABCA All-American hit .394 in his two seasons, a career mark that ranks fourth-best in school history. He reached base at a .515 clip which still checks in at No. 3 in program history.

In the professional ranks, Mills played in 107 games in his four-year MLB career, batting .256 with the Expos.

Mills managed 11 seasons in the Minor Leagues with the Cubs (1987-92), Rockies (1993-96) and Dodgers (2002), moving into managing immediately upon the completion of his playing career. He's coached 11 years at the Major League level, including the past six as Boston's bench coach.

NCAA College World Series Champions

The 1976 baseball team won the first of the University of Arizona's 16 national championships in school history.

After posting a 48-16 regular season record, the Cats cruised through the Midwest Regional in Edinburg, Texas, scoring 23 times in three games while surrendering only a total of three runs. Arizona shutout Pan American, 5-0, behind the pitching of Steve Powers' five hitter in the opening game of the regional. Missouri provided little challenge in game two, as UA raced out to 5-1 lead through six and added two more in the seventh and three in the eighth for a 10-1 victory. Every Wildcat starter had at least one hit in the game and eight of the starting nine scored at least once. With a trip to the College World Series on the line, the Wildcats left no doubt as to who it would be, as Arizona dismantled Texas A&M, 8-2. Sophomore Dave Crutcher struck out 12 Aggies in a complete game performance on the mound.

In Omaha, Arizona lost a game early, but never lost hope. Up 4-2 through seven innings in its first game in Omaha, UA stumbled, 7-6, in 10-innings to rival Arizona State to fall into the losers bracket. Down, but not out, the Cats rallied after their initial loss. UA bested Oklahoma, 10-2, in game two behind a 5-for-6, two RBI, three run performance by All-American Ron Hassey. In game three, against Clemson, Arizona jumped out to an early 6-1 lead and held on for a 10-6 victory. Don Zimmerman and Pete Van Horne supplied the fireworks against the Tigers, combining for five hits, five RBIs and five runs scored. Eastern Michigan, whom the Cats would see again in the title game was up next. Les Pearsey's three run home run in the fifth brought the Cats back from an early deficit and a five run ninth earned the Cats a 11-6 win and a chance at redemption for their lone CWS loss. Facing the Sun Devils for the eighth time in 1976 the Wildcats, and more importantly Steve Powers, had Arizona State's number. Working a complete game, Powers surrendered only four hits and a lone unearned run in the bottom of the ninth for a 5-1 win and a berth in the fourth title-game in school history. Facing Eastern Michigan for the second time in the series, the result was very much the same, as UA crushed the Eagles 7-1 for the national championship. Dave Stegman and Powers each had three RBIs in the game and Rob Chaulk tossed a complete game six hitter. Designated hitter/pitcher Powers was named the World Series MVP after completing the six games 8-for-22 (.364) with six RBIs and two home runs, including a two-run shot in the championship game. He also worked 17.1 innings on the mound, including the complete game, four hitter against Arizona State in the semifinal game. He struck out 10 in two appearances. Coach Jerry Kindall, who became the first person to both play for and coach a national championship team, was honored with the Coach of the Year Award by the ABCA, the first of three such awards that he would win during his tenure at UA.

NCAA College World Series Champions

With the lessons learned from the College World Series experience in 1979, the Wildcats nabbed their second national championship in baseball. Powered by Golden Spikes Award winner and College World Series MVP Terry Francona at the plate and Craig Lefferts on the mound, the 1980 team was on a mission for the championship. Opening the season with a three game series against defending national champion Cal-State Fullerton, UA set the early tone for the season by taking a pair of games from the Titans. However, the Cats found themselves with a very average 17-11-3 record 31 games into the season, but a sweep over Colorado in the final non-conference series of the year propelled the Cats to 14 wins in their next 17 games. In the final series of the season, against Arizona State, the Cats faced their instate rival with a 31-14-3 record. With Arizona needing only one win to qualify for the NCAA tournament, the Sun Devils pushed UA to the final regular season game before succumbing to a dominate Wildcat team, 22-4. Including the West Regional, hosted by Arizona, a school record 113,951 fans came out to Wildcat Field to watch the Cats in 1980, an average of over 3,250 fans per game.

In what was considered the toughest regional in the country, sixth-ranked Arizona came from behind to top ninth-ranked Fresno State and thrice beat upstart Gonzaga, which had upset defending national champion Cal-State Fullerton twice, to advance to its second consecutive College World Series, its 12th overall appearance.

Much like the 1976 championship team, the Cats dropped their first game of the College World Series losing, 6-1, to St. John's. Battling back from the losers bracket, freshman sensation Ed Vosberg earned his sixth win of the season with a 5-3 victory over Florida State. Lefferts shut down Big Ten power Michigan 8-0 in game three, handcuffing the Wolverines on five hits, while striking out seven. Up next was the only undefeated team left in World Series play, the Hawaii Rainbows. Arizona's chances for a second national title looked bleak as the Rainbows held a 2-0 lead into the eighth. Faced with tournament elimination, Scott Stanley launched a 380-foot grand slam into a 15 m.p.h. wind to give Cats a 4-2 advantage. UH responded with a pair of runs of its own in the bottom of the eighth to tie the score and send the game into extra innings. In the 11th, Dwight Taylor and John Moses came up back-to-back triples to open the inning, giving the Cats the lead. After tacking on an insurance run for a 6-4 advantage, Greg Barger closed out the victory on the mound for his seventh win of the season. Arizona's incredible ride continued for another day. In what many considered to be the national championship game, the Cats met up with Pac-10 foe Cal for the right to advance to the title game. A seesaw shootout between the Bears and Cats ensued. Cal jumped out to a 8-3 lead through four innings, but the perseverant Cats chalked up five of their own in the fifth to tie the game. Not to be outdone, the Bears plated two of their own in the sixth for a 10-8 advantage. The cornered Cats clawed their way back with a run in the eighth and two in the ninth to steal the win, 11-10, and advance to the World Series title game, a re-match with Hawaii. Unlike the two previous games, the title game offered very little surprises as Arizona built up a 5-1 lead on UH, and held on for a 5-3 victory. Coach Kindall was quoted as saying "there was no way Hawaii was going to beat us."

Pitching heroes Lefferts and Barger earned the win and save, respectively, in the title game. The two hurlers were both named to the All-World Series team. Lefferts posted a 2-0 record with a 0.57 ERA and nine strikeouts in 15.2 innings pitched. Barger earned two saves and a win in 10.1 innings. He struck out 10 while surrendering only one earned run. World Series MVP Francona recorded an impressive .458 batting average (11-for-24) while swatting a home run, two doubles and a triple. He drove in six and scored seven times in six games. Also named to the All-World Series team was first baseman Wes Clements. Clements finished the series hitting .318 (7-for-22) with two home runs and two doubles. He drove in five and scored five times as well. Coach Kindall was named Coach of the Year for the second time.

NCAA College World Series Champions

Returning all eight starters in field, the Wildcats won their third national championship in baseball. The Wildcat Nine started the season ranked third in the country and after splitting a two game series with Grand Canyon, Arizona faced Division II foe Cal-State Dominguez Hills. Behind the coaching of current Wildcat skipper Andy Lopez; the Toros shocked the Cats by taking two of three at Suncet Field. Despite the early setback, the Cats got back on track and jumped out to a 23-12 record at the midpoint of the season. The Cats went on a roll in the second half of the regular season, finishing 10-3 in their final 13 games, including a sweep over Arizona State in the regular season series finale. Arizona finished tied with Stanford for second place in the Pac-10 South and received an at-large bid for the NCAA Tournament.

Sent to Austin, Texas, Arizona breezed through the Central Region. The Cats crushed San Diego State 26-5 in their opening game in postseason play. The first three hitters in Arizona's order, Tommy Hinzo, Chip Hale and Mike Senne, combine for 10 of Arizona's 25 hits in the game, 11 RBIs and seven runs scored. Against host school Texas, the Cats broke open the contest with five runs in fifth, en route to a 9-3 win. In the next game, a six-run third proved to be more than Pepperdine could handle in a 10-6 UA win, giving the Cats control of the region. The Waves put up a fight in the regional championship game, but the Cats' Gil Heredia tossed a complete game for his 15th win of the season in UA's 5-3 win. The victory pushed the Cats' season to Omaha and the 14th College World Series appearance in school history.

In what is considered to be one of the most dramatic games in College World Series history, Arizona and Maine's opening round game provided fireworks down to the final pitch and proved that no opponent's lead was safe while facing Kindall's "Cardiac Kids". Down 7-0 through the first six and a half innings, the Wildcats rallied for a run in the seventh, four in the eighth and three in the ninth to steal the victory from the Black Bears, 8-7. Dave Shermet's name will long be remembered by Wildcats fans for his ninth inning heroics in that opening game. In a scene from every ballplayer's childhood dreams, the pinch-hitting sophomore lined a full-count, two-out pitch over the scoreboard in left field for a walk-off, two-run homer. Senior Joe Estes, who would win a pair of games out of the bullpen for Arizona in the CWS, was the beneficiary of Shermet's heroics, earning the victory with a perfect inning of relief.

The come-from-behind method of victory would be a tactic employed by the Wildcats throughout the CWS. In game seven of the series, the Cats trailed Loyola Marymount, 5-4, through six innings. Todd Trafton's two-run homer in the seventh gave them the lead and an insurance run in the eighth provided an extra run in the 7-5 Arizona victory. Game One winner Estes tallied his second win in as many games on the mound. The left-hander came on in relief of starter Gary Alexander and shut down the Lions bats with 3 1/3 innings of two-hit work.

Florida State jumped out to a quick 5-1 lead through the first two innings in Game 11, but future Major Leaguer Gil Heredia settled down on the mound and limited the Seminole offense to only four hits over the final seven innings in a complete game performance. The Wildcat bats bailed Heredia out with a five-run sixth, three of which came on Mike Senne's home run to left-center. The Cats went on to win, 9-5, for their third victory in Omaha.

Miami (Fla.) ruined Arizona's perfect run through the series with a 4-2 win in Game 13, but true to fashion, the Wildcats had a chance to come back. Arizona scored once in the ninth to make it a two run lead and had the tying runs on first and third when the final out was recorded.

Arizona's lone loss in the '86 World Series didn't temper the Cats in the championship game. Arizona exploded for 10 runs on 11 hits against Florida State. Starter Alexander tossed a complete game for his eighth win of the season, defeating 20-game winner Mike Loynd in the process. Gar Millay went 3-for-4 in the game with a home run, three RBIs and two runs scored. World Series MVP Senne was 2-for-5 with a home run, two RBIs and two runs scored. He finished the five-game series 10-for-21 (.476) with two home runs, eight runs scored and six RBIs.
